REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTION.

The Republican county convention for the nomination of county officers was held Tuesday in the court house park, Doylestown, and was attended by large delegations from all but four of the seventy-five districts.

The officers for which candidates were to be nominated were sheriff, recorder of deeds, register of wills, clerk of orphans' court, clerk of quarter sessions, county commissioners, director of the poor and auditors.

The Doylestown Intelligencer's report of the proceedings is as follows: D. R. Williamson, of Durham, called the convention to order at 11.15, and J. Freeman Hendricks, Esq., of Doylestown, was chosen permanent chairman by acclamation. Clayton Williams, of Tinticon, D. R. Williamson, of Durham, and the editors of the Republican papers of the county were elected secretaries.

The following vice presidents were elected: R. B. Kelly, Bristol, James S. Magill, Bristol township, W. H. Raudall, Doylestown, W. H. Rosenberger, Hilltown, Tobias Gehman, Plumstead; E. P. Curtis, Tinticon; Truxton Vanerdsalen, Warwick; William G. Moyer, New Britain.

The calling of the list of districts showed all but four of the seventy-five to be represented.

Copies of the report of the committee appointed to revise the rules of the Republican party of Bucks county were then distributed to the various delegations for their consideration previous to adoption at the afternoon session.

D. R. Williamson, of Durham, said that it is a well-known fact and one here to-day that there is a great stir in the Republican party of Bucks and that question is the judicial nomination, and I believe that all nominations should be made in mass convention of the people, and I move that this convention go into nomination for judges.

The motion was greeted with loud cheers, and the motion was overwhelmingly carried.

Mr. Williamson then moved that the convention resolve itself into a judicial convention, with Hampton W. Rice, of Solebury, as chairman. This motion was then carried with cheers. Mr. Rice was greeted with three cheers as he stepped upon the platform.

Jacob Clemens, of Doylestown, then spoke, as he said, in behalf of the Republicans, and in eulogistic language placed in nomination General B. F. Fisher, of Philadelphia, a son
